CELEBRITY AID SCAM

How the advance-fee scam tricks trusting people

1. Scammers promise a [₹1 crore grant] using a famous celebrity name
2. They demand lakhs in advance for fake 'processing' or 'clearance' fees
3. Once money is transferred, scammers disappear without providing aid

The massive promised grant used as bait

VERIFIED MARKET METRIC

₹1 Crore

Promised financial assistance

An elderly victim lost lakhs after transferring money to unlock this fake grant.

Market Debunk

#MARKETDEBUNK

Real charitable aid vs fake advance-fee schemes

❓ COMMON QUESTION

✅ SOURCE-BACKED ANSWER

Safety checks before trusting financial aid claims

- ✓ Verifying claims through official verified foundation channels
- ✓ Refusing any request to pay money upfront to claim aid
- ✗ Sending advance processing fees to unlock a grant

Why genuine trusts never demand fee deposits

Legitimate charitable trusts exist to give financial aid, not to collect fees. Any scheme asking for [upfront money transfers] to release assistance is a scam.

What to do if someone demands a fee for aid

Stop all communication immediately. [Do not transfer any cash], and report the caller details and bank accounts to cyber crime authorities.

PROTECT YOUR HARD-EARNED MONEY

📌 Save for Reference
Bookmark this framework when making this money decision.

✈️ Share with a Peer
Send this to a fellow investor when they face this decision.

💬 COMMUNITY DEBATE

Save this guide to protect your family from advance-fee scams, and share it with elders in your community.